To All New Customers:

DEVANCO FOODS requires that all new customers complete a resale tax exemption certificate for every state they reside in or do business in. Most state's sales tax laws require that a customer supply this certificate or be charged sales tax on all purchases.

DEVANCO having a resale tax exemption certificate on file will help ensure that your company doesn't have sales tax exposure due to a DEVANCO tax audit. If DEVANCO was required to remit sales tax during an audit related to sales to your company we would be required to request reimbursement from your company. Additionally, a non-compliance situation on your company's part may increase your risk of a sales tax audit. For this reason, our Tax Department will follow up with all new customers that do not submit a completed resale tax exemption certificate.

Accompanying this letter is a Multi-State Resale Tax Exemption certificate that 38 states have indicated is acceptable for use as a "blanket" resale tax exemption certificate. If your state is not listed on this form, you may access your state's tax website by logging onto: <http://www.taxadmin.org/fta/link/default.php> and determining what form your state will accept as a resale tax exemption certificate, if a form is required.

The resale tax exemption certificate should be returned to me as soon as possible in one of the following manners:
